Drive to Karlstad, provincial capital of Sweden, at the heart of Varmland, one of Sweden’s loveliest lakeside towns. Continue to Stockholm, Swedish capital and a cosmopolitan city, if there is one. It is the 1998 “Culture Capital of Europe”. Its fantastic location is where Lake Malaren meets the sea, leading to such scenic beauty and royal splendor. Rest of the day at leisure.(BLD)

Day 09/Sep 07 STOCKHOLM/OVERNIGHT CRUISE

Sightseeing will include a view of the Royal Palace, the Cathedral Riddarholm (where the Swedish kings are buried) and the festive blue and white chambers in the Town Hall. Visit the City Hall’s Golden Room where the Nobel Peace Prize banquets are held. Highlight is a visit to the unique Vasa Galleon which gives us a marvelous impression of life on board a naval vessel in the 17th century. Then to the charming Old Town and the countless channels and bridges that connect the city’s many islands.

In the afternoon, transfer to the harbour to board a luxurious ship for an overnight cruise across the Baltic Sea to Helsinki, “2000 Culture Capital of Europe”. Admire the scenic beauty of the Swedish archipelago and the Baltic Sea. You may enjoy a night of merrymaking aboard. For your heart’s delight is a fantastic smorgasbord dinner. (BLD) Watch out for islets you pass. It’s marvelous.

Day 10/Sep 08 HELSINKI, Finland

Arrive in Helsinki, capital of Finland. Sightseeing will bring us to the City Hall and Parliament House, the Presidential Palace, the impressive railroad station, the unique “Church in the Rock”, the great Lutheran Cathedral. Then to the Sibelius Monument, a tribute to Finland’s greatest composer and one of the world’s best. Free time to explore the tiny shops for splendid ceramics and souvenirs in the open market. (BLD)

Day 11/Sep 09 HELSINKI/ ST. PETERSBURG, Russia

Embark on a fast train to St Petersburg, Russia, founded by Peter the Great and dubbed as “Venice of the North”. He made it the capital of all the Russias and ensured that it should rival other European capitals in splendor, beauty and distinction. Drive along the main thoroughfares of the Nevsky Prospekt with its famous square, parks, monuments and bridges. Visit the magnificent

Peter & Paul Fortress where many of Russian royalty are buried. Check in to your hotel for accommodation. (BD)

Day 12/Sep 10 ST. PETERSBURG

Drive to Petrodvorets, the Russian czar’s summer residence on the Gulf of Finland. The palace is a jewel of Russian architecture. Tour the Grand Palace and the lower park with its magnificently manicured gardens, numerous golden fountains and cascading waterfalls. Then to the magnificent St. Isaac’s Cathedral one of the grandest in the world. Another night here. (BLD)

Day 13/Sep 11 ST PETERSBURG

Today we drive to Pushkin, home of the great Russian poet. Visit the lovely Ekaterina Palace (Palace of St. Catherine the Great) and see its collection of fine furniture and other memorabilia. Note the gold leaf decors and see the world famed Amber Room!

Highlight is a visit to the Winter Palace, former residence of the Czars but now housing the famous Hermitage Museum. The art collection has been expanded to become the richest collection of paintings in the world.

Visit the grandiose Spas Na Krovi Cathedral also known as Saviour on the Blood and Resurrection Church. View the Admiralty and see the Statue of Peter the Great. Tonight, why not join an optional Russian Ballet performance? (BLD)
